Five Children Born in Year, All Live

Hubbard Lake, May 9.— Mrs. Orville Robb has just presented her husband with a healthy set of twins, making five children born to the couple within a year.

About eleven months ago she gave birth to triplets, all of them living, and ready to make things lively for the new arrivals.

Unlike the "cold lady who lived in a shoe and had so many children she didn't know what to do," Hubbard Lake's busiest mother is overjoyed at the astonishing growth of her family circle. The Robbs now have ten children. The eldest is eight years old.

Clergyman Who Officiated at Obscure Town Near Massachusetts Line Kept Secret

MME. CURIE TO GET GOLD MEDAL FROM COOLIDGE

Draws Text of Sermon From Abandoned Waif

Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, former Boston clergyman, drew the text for a powerful "Mother's Day" sermon in the Church of the Ascension in New York from little Faith Willard, the baby girl abandoned on the doorstep of his rectory.

"What shall we do for unmarried mothers?" he demanded. "It is not enough to make it a crime for them to abandon their nameless children.

"There is all this vulgarity concerning things pertaining to motherhood because fathers and mothers have not spoken plainly to their children.

"If you teach your children the sanctity of sex their grandchildren may be useful and beautiful specimens of humanity.

"There ought to be some way to deal with unmarried mothers that will not make them outcasts. In many cases their instincts may have been as honorable as those of their married sisters.

"Get rid of hypocrisy and false nights. It is necessary to purify our mental attitude on sex matters."

While he preached, little Faith slept in the rectory amid blankets of baby blue, as peacefully as if her unknown mother were the most honored lady in the land.

Counsel Defends Dr. Russell's Testimony

By International News Service.

Buffalo, May 9.—Defenders of Dr. Hardy L. Russell, the Buffalo physician who testified at the New York hearing in the Stillman divorce case, were drawn out today by his counsel, Joseph H. Morey.

Morey denied that Dr. Russell violated any professional confidences of ethics when he told the court that Mrs. Stillman while under his treatment, in 1918, informed him that Frederick Galatin was the father of her expected child. Morey declared the doctor was compelled by the court to testify.

"Friends of Mrs. Stillman have seen fit to make in the public press savage and wholly unjustified attacks upon Dr. Hugh L. Russell," he said, "for his testimony in the Stillman case. The attacks have been so bitter the public should have some explanation of the real facts.

"As counsel for Dr. Russell, I attended the hearing. Dr. Russell was subpoenaed to testify. He protested the privilege as vigorously as far as it was possible. He claimed his privilege as a physician and refused to answer. He answered nothing. The testimony for which he is criticised was given in answer to direct questions of questions only after counsel asserted that the information was material and after the court had ruled that the particular question must be answered. Dr. Russell testified with the greatest reluctance and at last the court compelled him to answer."

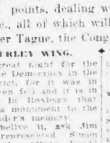
'Twill Be a Great Night for Democracy

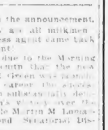
SMILING TOM GREEN WILL DONNING TUXEDO

"Smiling Tom" Green, who represents Charlestown and Marin Lomasney's ward in the State Senate, will don his tuxedo and stiff collar tonight and give the glad hand to all the mayoralty candidates who attend the novelty May party and political dragnet contest of the Morning Glories, his pet organization, in Roughan Hall, City square, Charlestown.

Not alone will Senator Tom greet the "next Mayor" and other city executive possibilities, but he plans to explain a few facts dealing with the manly art of self-defence and strategic political points, dealing with patronage, such as jobs for the faithful, etc., all of which will be elaborated upon by "Jim" Curley and Peter Tague, the Congressional Mahatma.



JIM KENNEY IS STILL SEATING A PASS FROM TOMMY'S GLORIES



"WONDER IF THEY ARE ALL MILKMEN"

JUBILEE FOR CURLEY WING.

It will be a great night for the Curley wing of the Democracy in the Charlestown district, for it was in that section Warren fell and it is in Curley's locality in Roxbury that the city erected a monument to the Revolutionary leaders memory.

If you don't believe it, ask Jim Kenney, who represents the South Boston ward in the "Dixie Land" legislature several years, and who has been boasting a lame arm ever since as a reminder of his bravery in the Second Suffolk District.

Tommy Green admits he received the auto accident "bump" when he beat Martin Lomasney's candidacy for the Senate, with the assistance of Tague and the electorate of the district. But this fact will not deter the one and only Martin from having some sentiment chaser and gum shoe sleuths present at Tommy's Morning Glories' dance to get a earful of what the big guns present may say about certain things of vital importance in the twenty ward committee battle in which John I. Fitzgerald carried off the honors for Martin.

PERFUMED INVITATIONS.

Fancy perfumed invitations announcing the dance to the favored few read:

"You are cordially invited to attend the Novelty May Party and Dance of the Morning Glories, Roughan Hall, Charlestown, Monday evening, May the 9th, 1921. McBride's Orchestra. Concert 8 to 8. Dancing 8 to 2."

"Morning Glories" piped Lomasney, when he read the announcement. "I wonder if they are all milkmen."

Tom circulates press agent came back with the statement:

"It was mainly due to the Morning Glories' energetic action that the next Senator Thomas H. Green was reared on a political carpet the excellence of which has been substantially demonstrated by Tom's victory over the hitherto unbeatable Martin M Lomasney in the Second Senatorial District."

BOXERS AMONG MEMBERS.

And then to show the sturdy calibre of members who form the Green press agent penned this:

"Notable among its members is the sporting editor of the Boston Sunday Globe, a middleweight champion of the world in his manner. Harry Kimball Hergesh, whose ability as boxing promoter and maker of headline boxing matches has been universally recognized; "Jake" Driscoll, who has set up a world's record for 100 yards, and "Cow" O'Brien, leader of the famous Boston College football eleven.

"The club has a war record as well as a peace one, as eighty per cent. of its members are of the call.

"The most significant point in the press agent's effusion read:

"The Morning Glories have gone along all the years of their existence without an election of officers. They have no president. The members have never been assessed for dues. A committee of nine men control the destinies of the organization.

HARDING SHOWS FATIGUE SIGNS

Tiring President Urged to Spend More Time on Golf Links

By NORMAN HAPGOOD.

Boston American Staff Correspondent.

Washington, May 9.—There is something that the folks of Marion, the quiet Prairie, Wisconsin, boy, and myself, living regions do not fully understand.

On matters within the range of their experience their opinions are of the best. They have a knack of getting right to the point and of stating it in the most forceful terms.

It is sometimes well to look ahead.

President Harding so far has done extremely well. His excellent start has been due largely to the promptness of his judgment.

It has not been due to the number of persons with whom he has taken hands or the number of hours that he has been at his desk.

Up to now the system has worked well, but there are those who think they begin to notice signs of fatigue in the President. If this is true, and if the fatigue increases, it will be a serious thing for our country and for the world.

Norman Hapgood

CANNOT SHOW BEST JUDGMENT.

For the benefit of the tourists I have mentioned, and all others, I should like to say that Mr. Harding usually does his following evening with A man, who works when he is tired, but he cannot show his best judgment when he is tired.

A suggestion is the most important thing Mr. Harding will be called on to show. It is essential that he be encouraged to make as much exercise and recreation as possible.

He has no serious worry about his job. He has only to keep his good-natured face to the front and listen to the delegations from Morocco Crossing and Cedar Lebanon and that he may not be regular enough in his golf.

PREJUDICE AGAINST GAME.

A member of the American Embassy staff in London recently told me of a prejudice against golf existing there.

One of the first newspaper articles I ever wrote described for a Western newspaper a practice match by the then champion of the United States, not coincidentally a South American.

I found that the principles of playing along the game were the same as was passed by Arthur Balfour and other Greeks Europeans.

Some years later Theodore Roosevelt undertook to make William Howard Taft President of the United States, and did it. He knew that Mr. Taft's form of exercise was golf, and he knew also that for a man of Mr. Taft's sacrilegious girth was the best conceivable form of outdoor activity.

GOLF MIGHT LOSE VOTES.

But Roosevelt knew a lot of other things also. He knew that golf would not make any votes and might lose a few. Therefore as Mr. Taft's campaign manager in the campaign he persuaded him not to play. After Taft was safely elected he took it up.

Colonel Roosevelt had managed his own campaign like the incomparable politician he was. I say incomparable, because at that time David Lloyd George had not successfully challenged his pre-eminence in instinct for popular psychology.

The Colonel happened to like to play tennis. He had indeed, what was called a tennis cabinet. But he had no photographs of himself teaching in tennis clothes. Tennis also was indeed none of that class with some opinion in the districts from which he retains name in late and turn the race.

SNAPPED JUMPING FENCE.

The Colonel used to have his photographers when he was carrying a gun or jumping over a fence on a horse. That is a safe winner. As a matter of unpublished fact it is the favorite sport of kings, shooting and riding and of dukes and duchesses, but it is familiar on the prairie, and somewhat favorite with squirrels, so its aid to a statesman is undoubted.

Once I was standing on a hill out with Cheyenne. We, when a group of men galloped up on horseback. President Roosevelt arrived first, a little blown. Right behind him was James R. Garfield, holding back a lever.

As Garfield jumped off we exchanged a few words, and he spoke as naturally as if he had been playing croquet. Yet I was not surprised to read in a metropolitan newspaper that the President rounded in and his secretary was badly winded. That was the way things had been drawn-ciphered.

MUST KEEP IN CONDITION.

Mr. Harding's tasks are important beyond description. His business is to keep his mind and body in condition, to survey the whole world-field with the clearest vision, and to decide big things right.

The more golf he plays the more likely he will be to get away successfully with the questions that one after the other will be hurled at his head.

HISTORIAN, FATHER OF MAINE GOVERNOR, DEAD

Portland, Me., May 9.—Plans for the funeral of James Phinney Baxter, historian, poet, capitalist and father of Governor Percival P. Baxter of Maine, were being made today. Mr. Baxter, who was ninety-one years old, and who served four times as mayor of Portland, died after a long illness. He was president of the Maine Historical Society, of the New England Historic Genealogical Society and author of several historical works on the early history of New England.

FIREMEN HURLED ACROSS STREET BY AIR BLAST

Nashua, N. H., May 9.—A mysterious hot air explosion, that threw eight firemen across the street and caused $37,000 damage to the Julius Wolfman block, was being investigated today. Morey Sargent, a fireman, was badly injured when his hand was severed by glass and ten Chinese, sleeping on the third floor, were nearly suffocated. A second hot air explosion caused considerable damage in Halpain's store.

We Have Prospered and Grown
Merit Winning Recognition, Ever Seeks More Room

Accordingly, we announce our removal from 254-260 Harrison Avenue, corner Broadway, to more spacious and admirably equipped quarters, "five large floors, nearly 40,000 square feet," in the shopping center of Boston.

Here at our new completely stocked furniture store, with every grade of period and modern furniture and floor coverings; also all of the innumerable things for the baby, for his comforts and pleasure, we again pledge you the same service that has for over half a century identified the name Haines.

The reason why Haines has grown so fast is simply that for sixty-six years of development it has held to standards of quality, satisfaction and one price to all. All goods are marked in plain figures.

On this day no goods will be sold

It will surely be worth your time to pay us a visit on this day; you will find an assortment lacking nothing in completeness or variety for summer homes or bungalow, cottage or mansion. Every suite and individual piece represents the very latest patterns bought from the foremost manufacturers in Grand Rapids, selected by merchandise experts who have bought with fore-thought and wisdom and spent months in preparation for this event; not just in one department but throughout the store it is truly worth your time to come.

STAGE ASSAILED BY DR. STRATON

Offers to Debate "Shocking Iniquities" With Actors' Representative

New York, May 9.—The American stage received another severe knock from the pulpit tonight when the Rev. John Roach Straton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, repeated his attack on actors and actresses and declared that if a representative of the actors' profession would meet him in debate he would prove his charges against them. Straton declared that the American stage and Legitimate drama are not fit for all decent people to visit, unanimously to rally to the standard of righteousness.

"I have been challenged to meet my recent sermon and I announce that if a representative of the Actors' Equity Association or some other responsible group wishes to debate with me on the subject of the immoral stage I will hold him in Carnegie Hall, the largest auditorium in the city, and

LATEST NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE MOTION PICTURE WORLD

By FRIEDA DAVIS.

THE magazine digest of the lives of the movie players, from "extras" to stars, and the studios poured on a helter-skelter flood of their salaries, methods of entering the business and lists of culture and science has stirred Benjamin B. Hampton, one of the big producers in the film industry, to tell the inside facts. In the "Pictorial Review" he writes as follows:

"The public has been convinced that studio-land is filled with arrogant, whiskered autocratic directors who wear riding clothes and hollow loudly through megaphones; with executives who have only a nodding acquaintance with good manners, good English, or good morals, and with young women who spend most of their waking hours falling in modish waiting to vamp stronger men.

"All of which is far from the truth—and all of which injures the movies in various ways, among others, in that the nice girl, ambitious to become a screen actress is almost inevitably discouraged by her family and her friends.

"The players, therefore, have an unjust and undeserved reputation for shortness of cash.

"Most of the motion-players are drawn with the usual income and manner. A few are ticket-collected as William Farnum might have signified thirty or forty-dollar-a-week actor, and a few make more. The majority, in Hollywood and New York, are in the $100 to $250 class. Stars, directors, cameramen and executives are more modestly compensated.

PERSIAN PESSIMISM VS. LOCAL CHARITIES.

"The writers on motion picture subjects keep the reading public all worked up over the decorative, turquoise upholstery, the hundreds of pearls and menageries of Persian luxuries of the movie stars—motives they never seem to question, and they show little acquaintance with those players or the number of names reared per annum in the Hollywood Studio families. Yet there are churches that draw very heavily on the picture money.

"Los Angeles charities find the picture people prompt to give their studios, their talents, their money and their money to every worthy object. The greatest stars in Hindom join with the cowboy extras in presenting entertainments that turn many thousands of dollars into the bank accounts of institutions working for the unfortunate good. I know of no kindlier, more decent, more generous class of people on earth than the picture people of Los Angeles."

LOS ANGELES JUST LIKE LYNN.

"Let me say, finally, to the girl who wants to get into the movies that you alone can determine what her life will be after she reaches Los Angeles. She runs no more risk in the movies than she would encounter in the shoe factories of Lynn, Mass., or the wholesale drug establishment in Atlanta, Ga.

"After she is in the movies, if she chooses she can go to church every Sunday. If she wants to live quietly, she can do so. If she wants to be found, she will find note to exclude this longing, but if she chooses to carry the town's gaiety life, she can be sure that she will soon portray roles but that type of role in the screen.

"To say that beauty fades like a flower is not poetry in the movie language. It is hard, practical truth. The camera subtracts from beauty and adds to it, unmercifully. Every wrinkle and unsightliness is brought out. Even high lights on bone structure are accentuated. Indeed, so much has the camera been responsible for the girl downward that unscrupulous roles.

CLARA SMITH HAMON BARRED.

In view of Mr. Hampton's article it is interesting to learn that Clara Smith Hamon has been unable to rent a studio in Los Angeles where there are quantities of studios for rent.

She landed in Hollywood with a large sum of money preparatory to filming the story of her life and sensational murder trial in which she was recently acquitted. The owners of the studios visited, neither to keep with stories out of films and were firm in their refusals to give her space, and by paying her to move

Here's proof that life in Los Angeles is no more gilded or unnatural than life in Brookline or Cambridge. Milton Sills, his wife and eight-year-old daughter, Dorothy, spend much of their time in their sunny garden in Hollywood, near the studios. Mrs. Sills was known on the legitimate stage as Gladys Wynne. She is a cousin of Edith Wynne Matthison.

the name of St. Thomas's, the Rev. Percy T. Broderick.

Father Broderick, whose pastorate has been short only years and four months, was the first man to be appointed to the diocese of the Most Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, who is to be consecrated Archbishop of New York in the St. Patrick's Cathedral on May 25. Father Broderick will be installed in St. Thomas's the Tuesday following.

TONY SARG IN FILMS.

TONY SARG, the famous creator of marionettes, who delighted the children of Boston in the years of the past five years and whose puppets were seen here for a short time, is now in the movies. He has contracted to make films of his little wooden actors.

Tony Sarg is a famous showman, and he will put on the screen the imitation of the animated cartoon that has been seen on the screen. He will make a series of one-reel films which will be released under the name of Tony Sarg's Almanac. The first picture, "The First Circus," will be shown in New York all next week.

CAMERA CLICKS.

WESLEY BARRY has been engaged to play the leading role in an elaborate screen production of Gus Edwards' "School Boys." Young Barry will leave Marshall Neilan after finishing the remake this six-reel feature, then hurry back to the West coast long enough to bid former associates.

FIRST NATIONAL has received so many requests from exhibitors throughout the country for an early release of Pola Negri's second picture, "Gypsy Love," that they have advanced the release date to next week instead of next month. It will probably be seen in Boston in the near future.

WILLIAM FARNUM has bought a large boat for the summer home at Sag Harbor. Upon his return from Europe he will spend some time there before going on the Chautauqua circuit.

CHARLIE RAY expects to complete "The Businessmen" within a few days, when he will take a short vacation before starting his next production, a story by Jean Webster.

DANCE IN AID OF B. C. FUND

Students to Usher at West Roxbury Catholic Women's May Party

Undergraduates of Boston College will reside in the West Roxbury district, and will assist in the affair as ushers and aides of tomorrow evening's May dance, party in Highland Hall, Centre and Corey streets, under the auspices of the Holy Rosary Catholic Women's Society.

"This affair has been received with gratitude by the members of the society," said Miss Mary Kelly, president of the West Roxbury branch of the society. "Every member of the society is interested in the success of the dance. The public is invited."

Knowing what the ladies of the committee have to say about Tuesday night's dance, part of the proceeds of which will be turned over to the Boston College athletic association, "We do not quite know whether their enthusiasm or interest is to help 'B. C.' or means

This will 20 times bring you the delightful effects. It will show you whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. Then you can easily judge what they mean to you.

A book we send explains the unique results.

The War on Film

That dingy film on teeth

Dental science nowadays is conducting a war on film. It means a new dental era. The object is whiter teeth, cleaner teeth and safer.

Millions of people have already benefited. And leading dentists everywhere are urging this new way on others.

This is to offer a pleasant test. To bring you the results for awhile. Then to let you decide if you want them every day.

Film mars your looks

Film is that viscous coat you feel, ever-present, ever-forming. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

This film absorbs stains, so it clouds the teeth's beauty. It often forms the basis of thin, dingy coats. And coated teeth don't glisten.

So beauty alone demands its daily removal. Those who leave it do not realize how attractive teeth can be.

The great tooth wrecker

But film does more. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus film causes most tooth troubles. Despite the tooth brush, those troubles have been constantly increasing, until very few escape. The ordinary dentifrice does not effectively combat film, so much has been left intact.

That is the situation which dental research has in late years sought to remedy.

Two efficient methods

Two efficient methods have been found. Able authorities have proved them. A great number of dentists have watched the results for years.

Now these methods are combined in a tooth paste called Pepsodent, for daily use at home. Its effects are quick and delightful. A week's use is usually convincing.

Other essential helps

Modern research has revealed other needs. Ordinary diet is often rich in starch and deficient in fruit acids. A tooth paste should twice daily do what fruit acids do. It should stimulate Nature's teeth-protecting agents in the mouth.

Pepsodent does that. It multiplies the salivary flow. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

All these results come from every application. Thus mouth acids and the starch which forms them are effectively combated. Old-time tooth pastes, based on soap and chalk, had just the opposite effect.

Millions now show the results

Pepsodent is now widely adopted. As a result millions of teeth now glisten as they never did before. You see them everywhere. Those teeth are protected in these new, effective ways.

To countless women it has brought an added beauty. For men who smoke it is removing film-held tobacco stains. It is saving children's teeth. Dentists advise its daily use from the time the first tooth appears.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Feel the other good effects.

This test will be a revelation. It will show you what clean teeth mean. Then decide if you always want the teeth in your home kept like the teeth you see.

Cut out the coupon now.

other cities. Not only are Boston electric and gas rates higher, but under the so-called "equal clause" in lighting bills, councilor Watson charged that the Edison Company has mulcted the city out of $80,000 and Boston consumers out of $464,000 in four months of the present year.

WATSON BRANDS IT ROBBERY.

MUST BUCKLE TO BUY PLANT.

But they don't control the Boston American as it has repeatedly demonstrated by its fearless fights against these lighting companies on behalf of the people.

Holyoke and Wakefield and other places close by can operate their own lighting plants and supply light much cheaper than the people of Boston are forced to pay to the Edison Company, who can't Boston? Can it if it cares to shake itself and try.

In Cleveland, the municipal plant supplies electricity for three cents and the private plant charges five cents. In Pasadena, Cal., electricity costs only four cents; in Columbus, it the municipal plant sells it for five cents and the private plant for seven cents; Tacoma, Wash., five cents; Seattle, six cents from the municipal plant and six cents from the private company; New York, seven cents.

Experts who have studied local lighting conditions, report that the people of Boston are paying from 100 to 200 per cent. more for light and power than are consumers in many

PLAY FOR BENEFIT OF B. C.

Braves and College Team Get Into Action Today to Aid Building Fund

By NICK FLATLEY

The Braves resting from league competition, but not a game in their hands, will play the opening game of the Boston College outfit for the benefit of the college campaign fund.

Manager Mitchell saved an open date for tomorrow's game with the Pirates, but weakened the chance to give a couple of his younger whiteleg a little experience. Both Cooney and Powers are apt to be used in the box, giving the pitchers some chance to show what they can do against the Smoky City boys. Cooney is to work against the Collegians, and Shawkey or Barnes will be given the mound assignment for the Pirates.

Boston College has plenty of good material and three or four pitchers worth looking over. So the Brave sluggers will not have anything extra soft to swing at.

Get Bancroft, Cooney, Powers, Barnes, Shawkey, Gowdy, Rawlings, Wilson, Gibson, Meusel, Carey, Cutshaw, Pitt, Kelly, Schang, Hollocher, Mamaux, Miller, Kilduff, Mitchell, Smith, Rice, Speaker, Bush, Pratt, Ruether, Mays, Hoyt, Ehmke, Jones, Shocker, Sothoron, Bagby, Groh, Wheat, Konetchy, Sallee, Ainsmith, Hendrick, Ruel, Hooper, Walker, Myers, Collins, Jackson, Gharrity, Schalk, Faber, Williams, Kerr, Sox, Cicotte, Scott, Russell, Mails, Shannon, Ward, Bodie, Pipp, Nunamaker, Hoffman, Mogridge, Shocker, Bush, Vaughn, Cheney, Ayers, Ainsmith, Ruel

COURAGE AND ATHLETES

Nate Siegal Will Always Be Popular

By Jack Conway

Nate Siegal, New England welterweight champion, is one of the few ring leaders who believes that the best way to gain favor with the public is by fighting. Since defeating Young Kirby Siegal has made frequent ring appearances. His best battle was against Paul Doyle, which he defeated after a hard contest. Neither Ted Kid Lewis nor Paddy Flynn displayed any real fighting form when both in turn above cost him a decision against Siegal. And ONE time earned make a great bout are more than both a home run above cost him a pennant for the Yankees. Siegal is not putting on setups. He meets Marty Summers of Lowell at the Armory A. A. tomorrow night. Summers is one of the best welterweights in the country. If Siegal can win after he has been defeated by such a fighter as Summers, the New York star and some persons who have been attending the New England championships will be astounded.

Siegal, even in defeat, will be a popular fighter, as he possesses the one thing always admired by fans no matter where we find it. We applaud the mother who dashes into a burning building to save her children. So one of her sex is entitled to the admiration which keeps bobbing up in the form of the fighter who comes back after he has been defeated. The comeback will give as much honor to a courageous loser as it does to the man with a yellow streak.

TWO YACHTS FOR RACES AT COWES LAUNCHED HERE

New York, May 9—Two of the six 6-meter yachts that are to represent the Sewanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club in the international match to be sailed off Cowes, England, next August, were launched at City Island. Both boats are built from designs of William Gardner and are typical models.

The first boat launched was the Grebe, built by Nevins. The other is the Montauk, constructed by H. P. Woods Sons. Both boats are planked in mahogany. The Grebe was built for J. Townsend Irwin, of New York; Richard Boardman, of Boston, who will be the helmsman, and J. J. Saltonstall, also of Boston. The Montauk is owned by W. A. W. Stewart and Winthrop Aldrich.

KRAMER LOSES TO PIANI IN SPRINT

New York, May 9—Frank Kramer met his first setback of the season when he was beaten by Orlando Piani before a crowd of 20,000 bike fans at the Velodrome in Newark. Kramer, the veteran "Old Master" in a clean-cut and decisive manner. He rode from in front in each heat and carried Kramer so fast that the "champion of champions," was unable to pedal around him. The Italian fans went wild with enthusiasm when Piani won and waved Italian and American flags as he rode around the track with a bouquet of flowers doing a tour of honor.

Cote is only thirteen years old, but he pulled out like doubles tennis and the other visitors. The other visitors, the members of his team, were all Lowell boys, with the exception of Leonard, who is a Lawrence boy. Leonard accepts the fact after the field will be signed the middle part of July. Then he hopes to contest in a championship battle and has announced his willingness to step in under any terms the club can afford to make. He wants a try for the title.

SOCCER FOOTBALL TEAMS FORM CLUB LEAGUE

Ward Six, a team composed entirely of boys in long pants, and not old enough to vote, has been organized in Roxbury and will enter the Boston American Soccer League for the purpose of playing only Sunday games. Sunday was selected as the day for the reason that all members of the team are employed during the week. The team will be managed by Joseph Burroughs as director.

The team is composed of: H. Cody, goal; F. C. of Brooklyn; Eric P. Harrison, N. J.; Frank Cody, Jersey City; neighbors; Alfred Cody, Jersey City; neighbors; Joseph Burroughs, Jr., Roxbury; Football Club, Ball River, Fall River, Mass., and the J. & S. Club, F. C. of Providence, R. I.

Fresh From Paris

UNQUESTIONABLY flowers should be included in the Summer wardrobe, and among them may well be a frock of linen as simple and hemstitched modes as the model shown at the left.

The round-necked, one-piece frock opening down the front, has a pleated tan organdie frill to trim it, and the sleeves, which are only a little more than elbow length are elongated into points. A coming skirt drapery over the hip reveals an underskirt of tan left of the pleated tan organdie.

Width of the trade, at the left, against a sudden change of weather, may be carried a three-quarter coat of a smart Rodier fabric, in stripes of tan and brown. There is a full standing collar, lined with tan satin, and the coat fastens at one side, below the natural waist line, with a large bone buckle.

Hardtop blue tulleta makes an attractive frock designed to meet the present popularity of lace. The pleated skirt, with its short transparent tunic, opens in front to reveal a petticoat of the same color. An interesting feature of the narrow sash ends are the short slits in the center. The front of the straight skirt opens to reveal a graceful, shaggy flounce underskirt of the same color.

THE CHARM OF A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

And how to attain it.

To be attractive—to be admired—is the secret desire of every woman, but few know how to attain this accomplishment.

First, it is necessary to remove all blemishes—tan, sun and wind freckles, dark, sallow spots, liver blotches and pimples—and bring a pink glow of life to the skin.

BLACK AND WHITE BEAUTY BLEACH

will remove almost all embarrassing blemishes, and make the skin clear, soft and beautifully tinted. Black and White Soap will preserve the complexion.

Black and White Beauty Bleach is a delightfully perfumed, pink tinted cream. When applied it forms an invisible coating over the skin. Beauty Bleach does away with tedious hours before your mirror or in the beauty parlor.

Important That Compulsory Voting Bill Should Pass

For years the Boston American has advocated compulsory voting. Voting is as much a duty and as important a duty as serving on a jury, serving in the army or navy or going to school. We spend millions and millions every year in public education to provide our citizens with the intellectual capacity to vote wisely. And then we let them vote or not vote as they please.

The evil of this neglect is that it gives more power to the evil forces in our democracy. It gives more opportunity for the use of money at election to effect results.

A large part, indeed by far the largest part, of the cost of campaigning on election day is the cost of bringing the indifferent voters to the polls. Indeed a large part of the expense throughout a political campaign is in stirring up the indifferent voters so that they will merely vote.

Those of our citizens who have no experience in politics scarcely realize how little of our political campaigns are devoted to conveying honest information and to attempting honestly to convince the voters, as compared with the amount that is spent to stir up the indifferent voter so that he will go to the polls and exercise his party prejudice. The party or the side of the political contest which has the greatest campaign fund thus always has an unmerited advantage under our present system which allows a man to vote or not to vote as he pleases.

The two best governments in the world without doubt are Switzerland and New Zealand. The best government in South America without doubt is the Argentine Republic. Five of the Swiss States have compulsory voting. New Zealand has compulsory voting and the Argentine Republic of South America has compulsory voting. Dr. Romulo I. Naon, Ambassador of the Argentine Republic, declares that the superior development of the Argentine Republic over every other South American republic is due to three fundamental policies—compulsory education, compulsory voting and compulsory military service.

Three years ago our Massachusetts Constitutional Convention, after a long debate which filled sixty-two pages of the record, voted by 148 to 96 to submit to the people a constitutional amendment providing for compulsory voting. The amendment was submitted to the people of Massachusetts and by them ratified at the polls in the same year. The Legislature has, however, not yet carried out the provision of this constitutional amendment. A bill is now before the Legislature which would put into effect the amendment providing for compulsory voting.

We hope and believe that this Legislature will not adjourn without passing a compulsory voting law.

This Is No Time for Ireland's Supporters to Quarrel

Now that David and Goliath are meeting in the person of President de Valera and the British government, we hope that the public recriminations of those engaged in the Irish cause will cease. This washing of dirty linen by Irish factions is a very sad business to the real friends of Ireland. We suppose that one out of every three Americans who are either hostile or indifferent to the cause of Ireland base their hostility or indifference upon the belief that the Irish are not fit to govern themselves because they all want to be generals and they cannot get along together.

This attack upon Edward L. Doheny is especially disgusting and the charge that he is pro-British is the most amazing thing of all. Those who were at San Francisco during the Democratic convention must be astonished to hear Mr. Doheny charged with want of ardor for the Irish cause. In a convention full of professed friends of Ireland he alone was selected because he alone was willing to open the fight for a resolution declaring for Irish independence. All the politicians were dodging this resolution until it was taken to Mr. Doheny. That brave, old gentleman said:

Why, I will consider it an honor, although I have never made an attempt to speak before such an audience and I am afraid I will not do very well, but I would give my life to the cause.

Those who were in the convention and saw the white-haired man, with a feeble voice trembling with excitement and nervousness at his unaccustomed task, and flouted and jeered at by the enemies of Ireland, standing his ground until he had succeeded in presenting the minority report in favor of Irish independence, will wonder how it is that any real friend of Ireland can be found in this country today who will question his sincerity. If there had been a few more Dohenys in that convention the declaration for Irish freedom would have been adopted.

The Boston American knows nothing about the merits of any quarrels, but we do know that now is not the time to ventilate them. Wait until after the victory and freedom has come home to Ireland and then the personal grievances of the major-generals and the brigadier-generals of the Irish cause in America can be settled.

There is no quarreling in Ireland. Let us follow the example of those who are risking their fortunes and their lives for the cause of the freedom where the battle is actually being fought.

State Constabulary Bill Should Be Killed

We understand that the legislative committee having charge of the bill to establish a military police, called "constabulary," in this State, on its first vote, was opposed to the bill. We hope that the reactionary influences behind this bill will not succeed in changing the minds of any of the members.

The bill is without excuse. Even the pretext for it is not plausible. It is pretended that the establishment of a special military force is desirable in order to protect the farming districts from auto bandits. But the Governor has power to increase the ordinary police force until it is adequate to render this protection.

The real purpose of the bill, however, is disclosed in the fact that it provides for a cavalry force—MEN ON HORSEBACK. Please visualize a horseman pursuing an auto bandit operating a high-powered car on the long stretches of a country road! We imagine that the country districts do need protection, but they need the protection of motorcycle officers and not cavalry. This cavalry business is intended to terrorize and brutalize workmen on strike. It is intended to play the part that the State constabulary plays in Pennsylvania—a part which is unconstitutional, un-American, inhuman, anarchistic and altogther undesirable, despite the favorable publicity which its benedictaries have given it throughout the country. It has operated in Pennsylvania almost solely for the purpose of denying to the people of that State their constitutional rights.

It is promoted by the same interests in this State, the propaganda for it being disseminated by a New York magazine which has recently established headquarters in Boston and which appears to derive its chief advertising revenue from the steel trades, the same trades which support the State constabulary of Pennsylvania, and which use it outrageously in times of strike.

The Question of the Hour

By S. E. Kiser

WILL taxes come down, as the Congressmen plan?
Will Europe endeavor to pay what she owes?
Will we have to get ready for war with Japan?
Will Russia get rid of her Bolshevik woes?
Will Ireland win or be ruled by her foes?
However important these questions appear,
Another is foremost wherever one goes:
"How many home runs for the Bambino this year?"

Will they whittle the wage of the laboring man?
Will the women be granted the right to propose?
Will the venturesome gland-grafters lengthen life's span?
Will the censors take merriment out of the shows?
Some men may believe that such questions as those Deserve the attention of prophet and seer,
But this one is foremost wherever one goes:
"How many home runs for the Bambino this year?"

Let Einstein proceed to explain if he can;
What boots it how much or how little he knows?
Let Wells try to tell us how homus began;
How many men care what his findings disclose?
For the clerk at the desk and the farmer who hoes
There are problems attended by doubt and by fear.
But this one's foremost wherever one goes:
"How many home runs for the Bambino this year?"

Fan, who puts the dew on the radiant rose?
You will pass up the question, perhaps, with a sneer,
For this is the big one, wherever one goes:
"How many home runs for Bambino this year?"

CONTROL OF TEMPER IS HARD TASK

By Beatrice Fairfax

ACROSS the way from my work shop there's a balcony fenced in by thick iron pickets. Here in hot days early in the spring, recently acquired, and a great source of excitement to the youngster.

The other day the lad discovered a new use to him—delightful trick. Seizing the bunny by its long ears and hind legs, Master Boy swung him in a large arc of a circle and—knocked it, I was red!

One swing of my own arm and my window was up. One deep breath and I sent a command to the lad:

"Stop hurting that rabbit!"

The lad looked at me and cringed away, swinging the animal by its hind feet. Round dream of surprise

Cell Police

If you don't stop hurting that poor little bunny and stop this minute I'll have to send for a police man," I said largely, knowing full well that the police would mean something to scare the boy.

Why shouldn't I have restrained him? Why shouldn't I have used the authority of my age and position to bring the boy to a realization of his wrongdoing? Why shouldn't I generally adopt a policy of reaching the child's conscience and heart for my purposes?

Self-Control

Isn't there a certain amount of brutality inherent in human nature? What else is temper and a lack of self-control but an expression of the animal that lives in us all?

If restraint there must be, surely in games and exciting conditions it must be exercised. Nothing makes it more an impression such as no amount of indignation can accomplish.

There isn't always time to stop and figure out a kindly way of accomplishing which must be done, but certainly the kindly word may get attention, while a reproaching one will arouse a resentment almost in the power of words.

Mastering independent manner express their opinions and ways of thinking and acting.

Letters to the Editor

"The Land of Promise"

Editor Boston American:

As one of the many readers of the Boston American I enjoy not only your splendid editorial, but the articles contributed by other writers to your paper. I know of no newspaper which gives its readers more to think about, and think with a better understanding on all subjects than the Boston American.

I was particularly attracted to the article in last Monday's issue by Dr. Charles Fleischer. It was his interpretation of Luis Mora's painting, "The Land of Promise." It was a beautiful interpretation, few men could have told what the soul of the painter wanted the world to know by his painting of the immigrant awaiting her acceptance to a new world, better than Dr. Fleischer. It was an interpretation only possible by one in whose character embodied a divine attribute, Sympathy.

The world needs more such interpretations, Dr. Fleischer's article appeal to me because it was a plea for spiritual unutilitarian.

Dr. Fleischer says this country stands for opportunity. He is right. Americanism stands as the realization of the immigrants' dream. We can make that dream what we or he wants it in our attitude. Dr. Fleischer has started something. Who will dare finish it to our own American glory. I thank Dr. Fleischer for his article, and you for publishing it.

WASHINGTON SEEDLINGS TO CARRY IDEALS

By Dr. Charles Fleischer.

HOW would you like to have a Washington Elm of your very

The other day an interesting suggestion was made by a Boston clergyman, with a view to the promotion of patriotism by the planting of shrubbery. The Rev. Edward Cummings proposed as an added means to the end of patriotic propaganda, the sending of seedlings of the original Washington elm to every city in the United States.

You will recall how Washington Elm (or what is left of it) stands near the Common of Cambridge. There, at the end of that historic avenue, a monument and tablet commemorate the fact that under the shade of this tree Washington took command of the Continental Army.
